

Dufourspitze, 4634m, in the Monte Rosa area, is the highest mountain in Switzerland and the second highest in the Alps. The “Cresta Rey” can be easily considered the “perfect line”! It rises up from the glacier exactly to the top of Dufour with a direct line; over it, it offers a first-class rock quality: flakes, cracks and spikes assure a enjoyable climb.

Program:

- 1st day: Meeting with the guide in Staffal around 14:00p.m. - Equipment check. We will take the cable car up to Punta Indren. From there we easily hike up to the Gnifetti hut, where we overnight.
↑ 1:00 hours - 370m
- 2nd day: Departure around 3:00 depending on the period of the year. We will follow the trail going to Margherita hut until the Colle del Lys; from here, we first go down along the Grenz Glacier to the altitude of 4000 meters. We climb up the small glacier between Dufour and Zumstein until the base of the ridge at the approximate altitude of 4200 meters. A short steep snow slope gives access to the proper ridge. We follow the ridge always as much as possible close to its edge and we arrive exactly on top of the Dufourspitze 4634m. On the way, back we follow the Italian regular route crossing the summit of Zumsteispitze. After a quick stop to Gnifetti hut to repack, we go back to the cable car and the valley.
↑ 6:30 hour's 1200m ↓ 5-6 hours 1500m
